Short Term Disability Insurance – Plan 21

Short Term Disability (STD) insurance from Standard Insurance Company provides financial protection for eligible employees by promising to pay a percentage of weekly earnings in the event of a covered disability.

The cost of this insurance is paid by your employer and enrollment is mandatory.

Eligibility

Eligible Employee

To be eligible for OEBB STD coverage, you must be an active employee of an employer participating in the STD insurance group policy. You must meet other eligibility requirements included in the member definition of the group policy and as required and determined by OEBB.

Becoming Insured

The effective date of your coverage depends on when you become an eligible employee and when you complete your eligibility waiting period, if any. In each case, you must meet the active work requirement before your insurance becomes effective.

Benefits

Weekly Benefit

70 percent of the first $2,143 of weekly predisability earnings as of the date of disability, reduced by deductible income (e.g., work earnings, sick pay, etc.)

Maximum Weekly Benefit

$1,500

Minimum Weekly Benefit

$15

Waiting Period Before Benefits Become Payable

7 days

Definition of Disability

For the benefit waiting period and while STD benefits are payable, you must be unable as a result of physical disease, injury, pregnancy or mental disorder to perform with reasonable continuity the material duties of your own occupation and suffer a loss of at least 15 percent of weekly earnings when working in your own or any other occupation.

Maximum Benefit Period

60 days
