1 Maximum issue age may vary by distributor.

2 This is referred to as the Surrender Charge Period in the contract.

3 There is no market value adjustment in California.

4 These options are available without withdrawal charges or market value adjustments.

5 The purchase of the annuity for those age 91-93 must be for transfer-of-wealth or estate-planning purposes.

6 Available after the first contract year. Withdrawal amount is based on a percentage of the value of the annuity fund as of the contract anniversary. We require a distribution request for payments. Scheduled withdrawals are not available.

7 Applies after the first contract year. Additional limitations, state variations and exclusions may apply.

8 Partial index crediting is available on terminal conditions, nursing home residency, death benefits or annuitization.

9 Legacy Max is not available in California and may not be available in all states or for all distributors.

10 In all Medicaid planning scenarios, work with a qualified Elder Care Attorney. Availability and eligibility vary by state. Medicaid annuities are regulated by the Internal Revenue Code, state insurance law and state Medicaid law. Some contract features and options may not be available or similar in all states because state governments oversee insurance companies. The Standard cannot guarantee Medicaid eligibility.

The Standard is a marketing name for StanCorp Financial Group, Inc. and subsidiaries. Insurance products are offered by Standard Insurance Company of Portland, Oregon in all states except New York. Product availability and features may vary by state and distributor and are solely the responsibility of Standard Insurance Company.
