

30 Seconds on Income Protection Insurance

Individual disability insurance protects you by providing monthly cash income. You can use this to help pay your bills in the event a sickness or accident prevents you from earning your usual paycheck.

Could It Happen to Me?

Just over 1 in 4 of today's 20 year-olds will become disabled before reaching age 67.¹

Disability Claims Have Many Causes

What Kind of Protection Can I Expect?

When you have income protection insurance with The Standard[‡], the maximum benefit amount of your coverage is based primarily on your salary, bonuses,² and your occupation at the time your insurance is issued to you. Should you change occupations or change your duties, your disability coverage remains intact, even if your duties change or you lose your job, so long as you pay the premiums on time.

Count on The Standard

If you ever become disabled and need to make a claim, you'll discover our exceptional service and compassionate claims philosophy. Policies in NY: This policy provides disability income insurance only. It does not provide basic hospital, basic medical or major medical insurance as defined by the New York State Department of Financial Services. The expected benefit ratio is at least 55% for individual coverage and either at least 60% or 85% for franchise coverage, depending on the product purchased. This ratio is the portion of future premiums which The Standard expects to return as benefits when averaged over all people with the applicable policy.
