Supplemental Long Term Disability Insurance
FOR EMPLOYEES OF THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

Answers to your questions about coverage from Standard Insurance Company
About This Booklet

This booklet is designed to answer some common questions about the group Supplemental Long Term Disability (SLTD) insurance coverage being offered by the State of South Carolina to eligible employees. It is not intended to provide a detailed description of the coverage.

If coverage becomes effective and you become insured, you will receive a group insurance certificate containing a detailed description of the insurance coverage, including the definitions, exclusions, limitations, reductions and terminating events. The controlling provisions will be in the group policy issued by Standard Insurance Company. Neither the certificate nor the information presented in this booklet modifies the group policy or the insurance coverage in any way. If you have additional questions, please contact your benefits administrator.

Please note that defined terms and provisions from the group policy are italicized in this booklet.
Supplemental Long Term Disability Insurance Features

Chances are you already purchase home, auto and life insurance to protect yourself against the threat of loss. And you probably have health insurance to guard against costly medical bills.

So, what steps have you taken to help shield yourself, your lifestyle and those who count on you from an unexpected loss of income? Would you be able to meet your financial obligations if you became disabled and unable to work?

Supplemental Long Term Disability (SLTD) insurance is designed to pay a monthly benefit to you in the event you cannot work because of a covered illness or injury. This benefit replaces a portion of your income, thus helping you to meet your financial commitments in a time of need.

By sponsoring group SLTD insurance from Standard Insurance Company, the State of South Carolina offers you an excellent opportunity to help protect yourself and your lifestyle. The advantages to you include:

- Convenience. With premiums deducted directly from your paycheck, you don’t have to worry about mailing monthly payments.

- Savings. Typically, group insurance rates are lower than the rates of individual insurance plans, generally providing you with coverage at a lower cost.

- Peace of Mind. You can take comfort and satisfaction in knowing that you have taken a step toward securing your income during a period of disability.

Commonly Asked Questions

The following information, written in non-technical language, provides details to give you a better understanding of group SLTD insurance available from The Standard. This is not intended as a complete description of the coverage.

Do I need SLTD insurance?

If you are not certain that you need SLTD coverage, consider whether you will be able to meet your financial obligations if you become disabled and unable to work for an extended period of time. The risk of disability is greater than most people think. Here are the facts:

- Over 1 in 4 of today’s 20 year-olds will become disabled before they retire.¹

- A disabling injury occurs nearly every second of each day - on and off the job. That’s more than 70,000 every day, more than 25 million every year.²

Am I eligible for this coverage?

To be a member and eligible for SLTD insurance coverage, you must be:

- Regularly working as an active, permanent, full-time employee as defined by the contract or a member of the General Assembly or judge in state courts and
- A citizen or resident of the United States or Canada

NOTE: You are not eligible if you are an employee of the State who is covered under any other group long term disability insurance plan that insures any portion of your predisability earnings (other than the State Basic Long Term Disability plan); an employee of the State who is receiving retirement benefits from the South Carolina Retirement Systems and who has waived active coverage under the State Health Plan or an HMO Plan; a temporary or seasonal employee; or a full-time member of the armed forces.
When does my insurance go into effect?
The effective date of your coverage depends on when you become an eligible member, when you apply, if you meet the active work requirement, and whether you are required to provide evidence of insurability.

If you are not required to provide evidence of insurability, and you apply and agree to pay premiums, your SLTD coverage becomes effective on:

- The first work day of the calendar month coinciding with or next following the date you become eligible if you apply on or before that date; or
- The first work day of the calendar month coinciding with or next following the date you apply if you apply within 31 days after you become eligible

If you are required to provide evidence of insurability, and you apply and agree to pay premiums, your SLTD coverage becomes effective on the first day of the calendar month following the date The Standard approves your evidence of insurability. In every case, you must meet the active work requirement before your insurance becomes effective.

What is the active work requirement?
Active work means performing with reasonable continuity, the material duties of your own occupation at your employer’s usual place of business. You must be capable of active work on the day before the scheduled effective date of your insurance or your insurance will not become effective as scheduled. If you are not actively at work on the day before the scheduled effective date of insurance, your insurance will not become effective until the day after you complete one full day of active work as an eligible employee.

Will I have to provide information regarding my medical history?
If you apply more than 31 days after becoming eligible to apply, satisfactory evidence of insurability is required. You will need to complete and submit a Medical History Statement. In some cases, we may request additional medical information or a physical exam.

Evidence of insurability is also required for reinstatement of terminated coverage, for members who elect to change coverage from Plan 2 to Plan 1, and for members eligible but not insured under the State of South Carolina’s prior SLTD insurance plan, if any.

When do SLTD benefits become payable?
If you become disabled and your claim for SLTD benefits is approved by The Standard, SLTD benefits become payable after you have been continuously disabled and remain continuously disabled for either:

- 90 days, if you elect coverage under Plan 1; or
- 180 days, if you elect coverage under Plan 2

SLTD benefits are not payable during this benefit waiting period.
When am I considered disabled?

During the benefit waiting period and the own occupation period, you are considered disabled if, as a result of physical disease, injury, pregnancy or mental disorder:

- You are unable to perform with reasonable continuity the material duties of your own occupation, or
- You suffer a loss of at least 20 percent of your indexed predisability earnings when working in your own occupation.

The own occupation period for the SLTD coverage is the first 24 months for which SLTD benefits are paid. You may work in another occupation while you are disabled from your own occupation.

After the own occupation period, you are considered disabled if, as a result of physical disease, injury, pregnancy or mental disorder, you are unable to perform with reasonable continuity the material duties of any occupation that you are able to perform, whether due to education, training or experience:

- Which is available at one or more locations in the national economy, and
- In which you can be expected to earn at least 65 percent of your indexed predisability earnings within 12 months following your return to work, regardless of whether you are working in that or any other occupation.

How much is the SLTD benefit amount?

Your monthly SLTD benefit is 65 percent of the first $12,307 of your insured predisability earnings reduced by deductible income. The plan minimum and maximum SLTD benefit amounts are indicated below.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Plan maximum monthly SLTD benefit</th>
<th>Plan minimum monthly SLTD benefit</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>$8,000</td>
<td>$100</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

How is the SLTD benefit amount calculated?

The SLTD benefit amount is determined by multiplying your insured predisability earnings by the specified benefit percentage. This amount is then reduced by other income you receive or are eligible to receive while SLTD benefits are payable. This other income is referred to as deductible income.

In the example below, the SLTD benefit amount is 65 percent of insured predisability earnings. If your predisability earnings were $2,000 and you now receive a monthly Social Security disability benefit of $600 and a monthly state disability income benefit of $200, your monthly SLTD benefit would be calculated as follows:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Insured predisability earnings</th>

<tr>

What are predisability earnings?

_Predisability earnings_ are your monthly rate of earnings from your _employer_ and typically include:

- Salary
- Shift differential pay
- Longevity pay
- Contributions you make through a salary reduction agreement with your _employer_ to an IRC Section 401(k), 403(b), 408(k), 408(p) or 457 deferred compensation arrangement, or an executive nonqualified deferred compensation arrangement
- Amounts contributed to fringe benefits according to salary reduction agreements under an IRC Section 125 plan
- Compensation earned during regular summer sessions by university teaching staff.

_Predisability earnings_ generally exclude bonuses, commissions, any renewal commissions, overwriting renewal commissions, service fees, overtime pay, your _employer’s_ contribution to a deferred compensation arrangement or pension plan or any other extra compensation. They are based on your earnings in effect on the January 1 preceding your last full day of _active work_. Please contact your benefits administrator for additional information regarding what is included in _predisability earnings_.

What is deductible income?

_Deductible income_ is income you receive or are eligible to receive while _SLTD benefits_ are payable. It is used to reduce the amount of your _SLTD benefit_ and includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Sick pay, annual or personal leave pay, severance pay or other forms of salary continuation (including donated amounts) paid by your _employer_
- Benefits under any workers’ compensation law, state disability income benefit law or similar law
- Social Security disability or retirement benefits, including benefits for your spouse and children
- Disability benefits from any other group insurance, including the Basic LTD provided through the State
- _Deductible income_ as defined under the _Retirement Plan Offset_ provision
- Earnings from work activity while you are _disabled_
- Earnings or compensation included in your _predisability earnings_ and which you receive or are eligible to receive while _SLTD benefits_ are payable
- Amounts due from or on behalf of a third party because of your _disability_
- Any amount you receive by compromise, settlement or other method as a result of a claim for any of the above.
What is the maximum benefit period?
If you become disabled before age 62, SLTD benefits may continue during disability until you reach age 65 or 3 years and 6 months, whichever is longer. If you become disabled at age 62 or older, the benefit duration is determined by your age when disability begins as indicated in the table below.

When do SLTD benefits end?
SLTD benefits end automatically on the earliest of:

- The date you are no longer disabled
- The date your maximum benefit period ends
- The date you die
- The date benefits become payable under any other LTD plan under which you become insured through employment during a period of temporary recovery.

What are some of the other features of this coverage?
This SLTD coverage has the following features:

- It covers disabilities that occur 24 hours a day, both on and off the job.
- If premium payments are made with “after-tax” dollars, SLTD benefits are federally tax-free under current federal tax law.
- If your employer makes an approved work-site modification that enables you to return to work while disabled, The Standard will reimburse your employer up to a pre-approved amount for some or all of the cost of the modification.
- If you die while SLTD benefits are payable, and on the date you die you have been continuously disabled for at least 180 days, a survivors benefit equal to three times your unreduced SLTD benefit may be payable. Any survivors benefit payable will first be applied to any overpayment of your claim due to The Standard.
- If the group policy terminates, SLTD benefits will continue as long as you are eligible to receive them.
- If you reach your maximum benefit period, benefits may continue for those eligible under the Lifetime Security Benefit.
What exclusions apply to this coverage?
You are not covered for a disability caused, or contributed to, by any of the following:

- An intentionally self-inflicted injury, while sane or insane
- War or any act of war (declared or undeclared, and any substantial armed conflict between organized forces of a military nature)
- A preexisting condition or the medical or surgical treatment of a preexisting condition unless on the date you become disabled, you have been continuously insured under the group policy for the 12-month exclusion period (12 months insured under Plan 1 and 12 months insured under Plan 2).

What is a preexisting condition?
A preexisting condition is a mental or physical condition, for which you have consulted a physician, received medical treatment or services, or taken prescribed drugs or medications at any time during the preexisting condition period.

The preexisting condition period is the 6 months (applies to both Plan 1 and Plan 2) period just before your SLTD insurance becomes effective.

What limitations apply to this coverage?
SLTD benefits are not payable for any period when you are:

- Not under the ongoing care of a physician in the appropriate specialty as determined by The Standard
- Not participating in good faith in a plan, program or course of medical treatment or vocational training or education approved by The Standard, unless your disability prevents you from participating
- Confined for any reason in a penal or correctional institution
- Able to work and earn at least 20 percent of your indexed predisability earnings, but you elect not to work; during the own occupation period, the responsibility to work is limited to work in your own occupation; thereafter, the responsibility to work includes work in any occupation.

Also, if you are living outside of the United States or Canada, payment of SLTD benefits are limited to 12 months for each period of continuous disability.

In addition, payment of SLTD benefits is limited in duration to 24 months in your lifetime if your disability is caused, or contributed to, by mental disorders, substance abuse or other limited conditions.

It is important to note that no SLTD benefits will be paid for any period of disability, if you are eligible and not receiving disability under BLTD.
When does my SLTD insurance coverage end?
The SLTD insurance ends automatically on the earliest of the following:

• The date the last period ends for which you make a premium contribution (except if premiums are waived while disabled)
• The date your employment terminates
• The date the group policy terminates
• The date you cease to be a member; however, insurance may continue for limited periods under certain circumstances as described in the group policy
• If applicable, the date your employer ceases to participate under the group policy.

How much will the SLTD coverage cost?
The monthly premium rates for the group SLTD coverage are indicated in the table below. The rates below become effective September 1, 2015.

How do I apply for SLTD insurance coverage?
To apply for SLTD insurance, you may access the Public Employee Benefit Authority website at www.peba.sc.gov and click on the Insurance Benefits button. You can apply at any time, but remember if you apply more than 31 days after becoming eligible, satisfactory evidence of insurability is required. Coverage subject to evidence of insurability is not effective until approved by The Standard.

What if I have additional questions?
If you have any additional questions, please contact your benefits administrator.
