Voluntary Short Term Disability Insurance

For Active Members of the State of Nevada Public Employees’ Benefits Program
Answers To Your Questions About Coverage From Standard Insurance Company
About This Brochure

This booklet is designed to answer some common questions about the group Voluntary Short Term Disability (STD) insurance coverage being offered by the State of Nevada Public Employees’ Benefits Program (PEBP) to eligible employees. It is not intended to provide a detailed description of the coverage.

If you become insured, you may access a group insurance certificate containing a detailed description of the insurance coverage including the definitions, exclusions, limitations, reductions and terminating events. The controlling provisions will be in the group policy issued by Standard Insurance Company. Neither the certificate nor the information presented in this booklet modifies the group policy or the insurance coverage in any way. If you have additional questions, please call 888.288.1270 or access https://pebp.state.nv.us.
Voluntary Short Term Disability Insurance Features

Chances are you already purchase home, auto and life insurance to protect yourself against the threat of loss. And you probably have health insurance to guard against costly medical bills.

So, what steps have you taken to help shield yourself, your lifestyle and those who count on you from an unexpected loss of income? Would you be able to meet your financial obligations if you became disabled and unable to work?

STD insurance is designed to pay a weekly benefit to you in the event you cannot work because of a covered illness or injury. This benefit replaces a portion of your income, thus helping you to meet your financial commitments in a time of need.

By sponsoring group Voluntary STD insurance from Standard Insurance Company, PEBP offers you an excellent opportunity to help protect yourself and your lifestyle. The advantages to you include:

- Convenience – With premiums deducted directly from your paycheck, you don’t have to worry about mailing monthly payments.

- Savings – Typically, group insurance rates are lower than the rates of individual insurance plans, generally providing you with coverage at a lower cost.

- Peace of mind – You can take comfort and satisfaction in knowing that you have done something positive for your family’s future.

Commonly Asked Questions

The following information provides details to give you a better understanding of group Voluntary STD insurance available from The Standard. Written in non-technical language, this is not intended as a complete description of the coverage.
Do I need STD insurance?

If you are not certain that you need STD coverage, consider if you would be able to meet your financial obligations if you became disabled and unable to work for an extended period of time. Visit our Disability Insurance Needs Calculator at standard.com/disability/needs to estimate your insurance needs.

If you depend on your regular paycheck to pay your bills, what would happen if you became sick and couldn’t work? Voluntary STD insurance from The Standard may be part of the solution.

Am I eligible for this coverage?

To be eligible for the Voluntary STD insurance coverage, you must be a citizen or resident of the United States or Canada, and one of the following:

- An active full-time employee of the State of Nevada (or any non-State agency approved by the PEBP Board), regularly working at least 80 hours each month;
- An active professional full-time employee under contract with the Nevada System of Higher Education;
- An active member of the Nevada Senate or Assembly; or
- An active employee of any other organization that provides benefits under the State of Nevada Public Employees’ Benefits Program and regularly working at least 80 hours each month.

You are not eligible for this insurance if you are insured under another short term disability insurance plan, a temporary or seasonal employee, a full-time member of the armed forces of any country, a leased employee, or an independent contractor.

When does my insurance go into effect?

The effective date of your coverage depends on when you become eligible, when you apply and whether you meet the active work requirement.

If you apply and agree to pay premiums, your Voluntary STD coverage becomes effective on the later of the date you become eligible and the date you apply. However, if you apply during an annual enrollment period, coverage will become effective on the following July 1.

Note: You must meet the active work requirement before your insurance will become effective, and you may be subject to a late enrollment penalty if you do not apply within 60 days after you become eligible.
What is the active work requirement?
Active work means performing with reasonable continuity the material duties of your own occupation at your employer's usual place of business. You must be capable of active work on the day before the scheduled effective date of your insurance or your insurance will not become effective as scheduled. If you are not actively at work on the day before the scheduled effective date of insurance, your insurance will not become effective until the day after you complete one full day of active work as an eligible employee. This active work requirement also applies to any increase in your STD benefit or decrease in your benefit waiting period.

What if I don't apply for this coverage now?
Late enrollment penalties will apply as follows:

- For employees who apply more than 60 days after becoming eligible (late application): A disability caused by anything other than an accidental injury that begins during your first year of coverage will be subject to a benefit waiting period of 60 days, regardless of the benefit waiting period Option you selected.

- For employees who become insured under this plan and then later wish to reduce the length of their benefit waiting period (change from Option C to Option B or Option A; change from Option B to Option A): If you become disabled during your first year of coverage under the new Option, and your disability is caused by anything other than an accidental injury, your benefit waiting period will be the benefit waiting period that would have applied to your disability if you had not elected to change your Option.

When am I considered disabled?
During the benefit waiting period and to the end of the maximum benefit period, you are considered disabled if, as a result of physical disease, injury, pregnancy or mental disorder:

- You are unable to perform with reasonable continuity the material duties of your own occupation, and
- You suffer a loss of at least 20 percent of your indexed predisability earnings when working in your own occupation.

You are not disabled merely because your right to perform your own occupation is restricted, including a restriction or loss of license. You may work in another occupation while you are disabled from your own occupation; however, you will not be considered disabled when your work earnings from another occupation exceed 80 percent of your predisability earnings.
When do STD benefits become payable?

If you become disabled and your claim for STD benefits is approved by The Standard, STD benefits will become payable after the benefit waiting period. This is a specified number of days during which you must remain continuously disabled. STD benefits are not payable during the benefit waiting period. When you apply for coverage, you select one of the benefit waiting period Options below:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Option</th>
<th>Benefit Waiting Period</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Option A</td>
<td>7 Days</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Option B</td>
<td>14 Days</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Option C</td>
<td>30 Days</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

If the late enrollment penalty applies, the benefit waiting period for disability caused by physical disease, pregnancy or mental disorder is 60 days during the first year you are insured under the Voluntary STD plan.

How much is the STD benefit amount?

Your weekly STD benefit is 60 percent of your insured predisability earnings reduced by deductible income. The plan minimum and maximum STD benefit amounts are shown below.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Plan maximum weekly STD benefit</th>
<th>Plan minimum weekly STD benefit</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>$1,500</td>
<td>$15</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

How is the STD benefit amount calculated?

The STD benefit amount is determined by multiplying your insured predisability earnings by the specified benefit percentage. This amount is then reduced by other income you receive or are eligible to receive while STD benefits are payable. This other income is referred to as deductible income.

In the example below, the STD benefit amount is 60 percent of insured predisability earnings. If your weekly earnings before becoming disabled were $500 and you now receive a weekly deductible income benefit of $50, your weekly STD benefit would be calculated as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Insured predisability earnings</th>
<th>$500</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>STD benefit percentage</td>
<td>x 60%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Amount of STD benefit</td>
<td>$300</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Less any applicable deductible income benefit</td>
<td>- 50</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Amount of STD benefit</td>
<td>$250</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

What are predisability earnings?

Predisability earnings are your weekly rate of earnings from your employer and include:

- Base salary
- Contributions you make through a salary reduction agreement with your employer to an IRC Section 401(k), 403(b), 408(k), 408(p) or 457 deferred compensation arrangement, or an executive nonqualified deferred compensation arrangement
- Amounts contributed to fringe benefits according to salary reduction agreements under an IRC Section 125 plan

Predisability earnings exclude bonuses, commissions, shift differential, overtime pay, your employer’s contributions on your behalf to a deferred compensation arrangement or pension plan, and any other extra compensation. Your predisability earnings are based on your earnings in effect on your last full day of active work.

If you are a legislator, predisability earnings means one fifty-second (1/52nd) of your annual salary. Annual salary is your total salary over the preceding two-year period divided in half, and includes pay for normal legislative sessions plus income received for attending interim committee meetings or special sessions.
What is deductible income?
Deductible income is income you receive or are eligible to receive while STD benefits are payable. It reduces the amount of your STD benefit. It includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Amounts under any unemployment compensation law, state disability income benefit law or similar law
- Disability or retirement benefits under your employer’s retirement plan including PERS, STRS, and a plan arranged and maintained by a union or employee association for the benefit of its members
- Earnings from work you perform while you are disabled, plus the earnings you could receive if you worked as much as you are able to, considering your disability
- Amounts due from or on behalf of a third party because of your disability
- Any amount you receive by compromise, judgment, settlement or other method as a result of a claim for any of the above

What is the maximum benefit period?
If you become disabled, STD benefits may continue during disability up to 180 days. This is the maximum period for which STD benefits are payable for any one period of continuous disability. However, STD benefits will end on the date long term disability (LTD) benefits become payable to you under a group plan provided by your employer, even if that occurs before the end of the maximum benefit period.

When do STD benefits end?
STD benefits end automatically on the earliest of:

- The date you are no longer disabled
- The date your maximum benefit period ends
- The date you die
- The date benefits become payable to you under any other disability plan under which you become insured through employment during a period of temporary recovery
- The date LTD benefits become payable to you under a group LTD policy
- The date you fail to provide proof of continued disability and entitlement to STD benefits

What are some of the other features of this coverage?
This STD coverage has the following features:

- Because premium payments are made with after-tax dollars, STD benefits are federally tax-free under current federal tax law.
- If an employer makes an approved work-site modification that enables you to return to work while disabled, The Standard will reimburse the employer up to a pre-approved amount for some or all of the cost of the modification.
- If the group policy terminates, STD benefits will continue as long as you are eligible to receive them.
- Health Advocate Select* - As an eligible employee on an approved STD claim, you will have access to a dedicated Personal Health Advocate, typically a registered nurse. The Personal Health Advocate can assist you with a wide range of services such as scheduling appointments, coordinating health care with providers and specialists, managing out of pocket medical expenses, resolving medical claims and billing issues, and finding resources for services that may not be covered through health insurance.

*Advocates are available to assist you Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. through 12 a.m. (midnight), Eastern Time, at 844.450.5543. Intakes can be accessed 24/7.
What limitations apply to this coverage?
STD benefits are not payable for any period when you are:

- Not under the ongoing care of a physician in the appropriate specialty as determined by The Standard
- Not participating in good faith in a plan, program or course of medical treatment or vocational training or education approved by The Standard, unless your disability prevents you from participating
- Confined for any reason in a penal or correctional institution
- Able to work and earn at least 20 percent of your indexed predisability earnings in your own occupation, but you elect not to work
- Eligible to receive sick leave pay, annual or personal leave pay or other salary continuation, including donated amounts from your employer
- Eligible to receive benefits for your disability under a workers’ compensation or similar law

When does my Voluntary STD insurance coverage end?
The Voluntary STD insurance ends automatically on the earliest of the following:

- The date the last period ends for which you made a premium contribution
- The date your employment terminates
- The date the group policy terminates
- The date you cease to be an eligible employee; however, insurance may continue for limited periods under certain circumstances as described in the group policy

Note: If you are not working because of a school break or vacation, your insurance will be continued during that period.

How much will the Voluntary STD coverage cost?
The monthly premium rates for the group Voluntary STD coverage are shown in the table below. If you have questions regarding how to determine your predisability earnings, please contact 888.288.1270 or access https://pebp.state.nv.us.

To calculate the monthly payroll deduction for your Voluntary STD coverage, use the rates above and the formula below:

1. Enter your weekly predisability earnings, not to exceed $2,500 on
   Line 1: $ __________

2. Multiply the figure on Line 1 by 0.60 and enter on
   Line 2: $ __________

3. Select your rate from the rate table and enter on Line 3.
   Line 3: $ __________

4. Multiply Line 2 by the rate shown on Line 3.
   Line 4: $ __________

5. Divide the amount on Line 4 by 10 and enter on Line 5.
   Line 5: $ __________

The amount shown on Line 5 is your estimated monthly payroll deduction. Premiums for the Voluntary STD coverage will be deducted directly from your paycheck.
