Voluntary Short Term Disability (STD) Insurance

Short Term Disability insurance pays a weekly benefit in the event you cannot work because of a covered illness or injury. An STD benefit replaces a portion of your weekly income, providing funds directly to you to help pay your bills and living expenses. Standard Insurance Company (The Standard) has developed this document to provide you with information about the optional coverage you may select through your employer, who must be participating in Washington Counties Insurance Fund (WCIF).

Eligibility Requirements

- |                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |

Note:

- All late applications (applying 31 days after becoming eligible), requests for coverage increases and reinstatements are subject to medical underwriting approval.
- To submit a medical history statement online, visit: <http://www.standard.com/mhs>. To obtain a paper form, visit the WCIF website at www.wcif.net.

Employee Coverage Effective Date

To become insured, you must satisfy the eligibility requirements listed above, serve an eligibility waiting period (if applicable), receive medical underwriting approval (if applicable), and be actively at work (able to perform all normal duties of your job) on the day before the scheduled effective date of insurance. If you are not actively at work on the day before the scheduled effective date of insurance, your insurance will not become effective until the day after you complete one full day of active work as an eligible employee.

Please contact your human resources representative for more information regarding the requirements that must be satisfied for your insurance to become effective.

Understanding Your Plan Design
Benefit Waiting Period

If your claim for STD Benefits is approved by The Standard, benefits become payable after you have served continuously the applicable days noted below for your disability and you remain disabled. Benefits are not payable during the benefit waiting period.

Accidental Injury, physical disease, pregnancy or mental disorder: After 30 days

Definition of Disability

You will be considered disabled if, as a result of physical disease, injury, pregnancy or mental disorder:

- You are unable to perform with reasonable continuity the material duties of your own occupation, or
- You suffer a loss of at least 20 percent in your predisability earnings when working in your own occupation

You are not disabled merely because your right to perform your own occupation is restricted, including a restriction or loss of license.

Deductible Income

Deductible income is income you receive or are eligible to receive while STD benefits are payable. Deductible income includes, but is not limited to:

- Amounts under an unemployment compensation law
- Amounts because of your disability under any other group insurance
- Disability or retirement benefits under your employer's retirement plan
- Amounts under any state disability income benefit law or similar law
- Earnings from work activity while you are disabled, plus the earnings you could receive if you worked as much as your disability allows
- Earnings or compensation included in your predisability earnings which you receive or are eligible to receive while STD benefits are payable
- Amounts due from or on behalf of a third party because of your disability, whether by judgment, settlement or other method
- Any amount you receive by compromise, settlement or other method as a result of a claim for any of the above

Additional Features

Please see your human resources representative for additional information about the features and benefits below.

Reasonable Accommodation Expense Benefit

If your employer makes an approved work-site modification that enables you to return to work while disabled, The Standard will reimburse your employer up to a pre-approved amount for some or all of the cost of the modification.

Exclusions

Subject to state variations, you are not covered for a disability caused or contributed to by any of the following:

- Your committing or attempting to commit an assault or felony, or your active participation in a violent disorder or riot
- An intentionally self-inflicted injury
- War or any act of war (declared or undeclared, and any substantial armed conflict between organized forces of a military nature)
- The loss of your professional or occupational license or certification
- A disability arising out of or in the course of any employment for wage or profit

Limitations

STD benefits are not payable for any period when you are:

- Not under the ongoing care of a physician in the appropriate specialty as determined by The Standard
- Not participating in good faith in a plan, program or course of medical treatment or vocational training or education approved by The Standard, unless your disability prevents you from participating
- Confined for any reason in a penal or correctional institution
- Able to work and earn at least 20 percent of your predisability earnings in your own occupation, but you elect not to work
- Receiving sick-leave pay, annual or personal leave pay, or other salary continuation including donated amounts from your employer
- Eligible to receive benefits for your disability under a workers' compensation law or similar law

When Benefits End

STD benefits end automatically on the earliest of:

- The date you are no longer disabled
- The date your maximum benefit period ends
- The date you die
- The date benefits become payable under any other disability insurance plan under which you become insured through employment during a period of temporary recovery
- The date you fail to provide proof of continued disability and entitlement to benefits
- If applicable, the date long term disability benefits become payable to you under a long term disability plan

When Insurance Ends

Insurance ends automatically on the earliest of the following:

- The date the last period ends for which a premium was paid
- The date your employment terminates, unless your employer allows insurance for members to continue through the last day of the calendar month in which employment terminates
- The date the group policy terminates
- The last day of the calendar month in which you cease to meet the eligibility requirements (insurance may continue for limited periods under certain circumstances)
- If applicable, the date your employer ceases to participate under the group policy

Group Insurance Certificates

If coverage becomes effective, and you become insured, you may retrieve a group insurance certificate containing a detailed description of the insurance coverage including the definitions, exclusions, limitations, reductions and terminating events from www.wcif.net or by calling (800) 344-8570. The controlling provisions will be in the group policy. Neither the information presented in this summary nor the certificate modifies the group policy or the insurance coverage in any way.

Rates

If you have questions regarding how to determine your monthly earnings, please contact your human resources representative. Premiums for this coverage will be deducted directly from your paycheck.
