IMPORTANT NOTICE

To

Members under Group Policy 643146-B issued to State of California as Policyholder.

Effective May 1, 2010, the Group Policy has been amended as follows:

2. The Policyholder’s application for coverage under the Prior Plan will be deemed to constitute the Policyholder’s application for coverage under Group Policy 643146-B.

3. The Active Work Provisions will not be construed to terminate insurance for any Member who was insured under the Prior Plan as of April 30, 2010. However, the provisions of Group Policy 643146-A will not apply to a period of continuous Disability which began prior to May 1, 2010, even if the Member is in a period of Temporary Recovery on April 30, 2010.

4. For purposes of the Incontestability Provisions, Group Policy 643146-B will be deemed to be in effect since October 1, 2004.

5. If LTD Benefits were payable under the Prior Plan for a Disability subject to a lifetime limit under the Prior Plan, those LTD Benefits will count toward the lifetime limit for such Disabilities under Group Policy 643146-B.

6. Group Policy 643146-B has been amended to provide the following for employees whose hours have been reduced under the Policyholder’s mandated Furlough Program (from August 1, 2010 through the date the program ends, as directed by the State of California):
   a. An employee will not cease to be a Member solely due to the reduction in work hours.
   b. Predisability Earnings will be based on the Member’s monthly base rate of pay that would have been in effect on the Member’s last full day of Active Work if the Member’s work hours had not been reduced under the Furlough Program.
NOTICE OF PROTECTION PROVIDED BY CALIFORNIA LIFE AND HEALTH INSURANCE GUARANTEE ASSOCIATION

This notice provides a brief summary regarding the protections provided to policyholders by the California Life and Health Insurance Guarantee Association ("the Association"). The purpose of the Association is to assure that policyholders will be protected, within certain limits, in the unlikely event that a member insurer of the Association becomes financially unable to meet its obligations. Insurance companies licensed in California to sell life insurance, health insurance, annuities and structured settlement annuities are members of the Association. The protection provided by the Association is not unlimited and is not a substitute for consumers’ care in selecting insurers. This protection was created under California law, which determines who and what is covered and the amounts of coverage.

Below is a brief summary of the coverages, exclusions and limits provided by the Association. This summary does not cover all provisions of the law; nor does it in any way change anyone’s rights or obligations or the rights or obligations of the Association.

COVERAGE

- Persons Covered
  Generally, an individual is covered by the Association if the insurer was a member of the Association and the individual lives in California at the time the insurer is determined by a court to be insolvent. Coverage is also provided to policy beneficiaries, payees or assignees, whether or not they live in California.

- Amounts of Coverage
  The basic coverage protections provided by the Association are as follows.

  - Life Insurance, Annuities and Structured Settlement Annuities
    For life insurance policies, annuities and structured settlement annuities, the Association will provide the following:
    - Life Insurance
      80% of death benefits but not to exceed $300,000
      80% of cash surrender or withdrawal values but not to exceed $100,000
    - Annuities and Structured Settlement Annuities
      80% of the present value of annuity benefits, including net cash withdrawal and net cash surrender values but not to exceed $250,000

  The maximum amount of protection provided by the Association to an individual, for all life insurance, annuities and structured settlement annuities is $300,000, regardless of the number of policies or contracts covering the individual.

  - Health Insurance
    The maximum amount of protection provided by the Association to an individual, as of April 1, 2011, is $470,125. This amount will increase or decrease based upon changes in the health care cost component of the consumer price index to the date on which an insurer becomes an insolvent insurer.
COVERAGE LIMITATIONS AND EXCLUSIONS FROM COVERAGE

The Association may not provide coverage for this policy. Coverage by the Association generally requires residency in California. You should not rely on coverage by the Association in selecting an insurance company or in selecting an insurance policy.

The following policies and persons are among those that are excluded from Association coverage:

- A policy or contract issued by an insurer that was not authorized to do business in California when it issued the policy or contract
- A policy issued by a health care service plan (HMO), a hospital or medical service organization, a charitable organization, a fraternal benefit society, a mandatory state pooling plan, a mutual assessment company, an insurance exchange, or a grants and annuities society
- If the person is provided coverage by the guaranty association of another state
- Unallocated annuity contracts; that is, contracts which are not issued to and owned by an individual and which do not guaranty annuity benefits to an individual
- Employer and association plans, to the extent they are self-funded or uninsured
- A policy or contract providing any health care benefits under Medicare Part C or Part D
- An annuity issued by an organization that is only licensed to issue charitable gift annuities
- Any policy or portion of a policy which is not guaranteed by the insurer or for which the individual has assumed the risk, such as certain investment elements of a variable life insurance policy or a variable annuity contract
- Any policy of reinsurance unless an assumption certificate was issued
- Interest rate yields (including implied yields) that exceed limits that are specified in Insurance Code Section 1607.02(b)(2)(C).

NOTICES

Insurance companies or their agents are required by law to give or send you this notice. Policyholders with additional questions should first contact their insurer or agent. PREMIUM CONTRIBUTIONS

Insurance is: Contributory
INSURING CLAUSE

If you become Disabled while insured under the Group Policy, we will pay LTD Benefits according to the terms of the Group Policy after we receive Proof Of Loss.

WHEN YOUR INSURANCE BECOMES EFFECTIVE

A. When Insurance Becomes Effective

You must apply in writing for insurance and agree to pay premiums. You may apply within 60 days after becoming eligible. If you do not apply during that period, you may only apply during a subsequent Designated Open Enrollment Period.

Subject to the Active Work Provisions, your insurance will become effective as follows:

1. If your application for coverage is processed by the 10th day of the calendar month, your insurance will become effective on the first day of the next calendar month.

2. If your application for coverage is processed after the 10th day of the calendar month, your insurance will become effective on the first day of the second calendar month following the date you apply.

3. The January 1 following the date you apply, if you apply during a Designated Open Enrollment Period.

You may change your plan selection only during a Designated Open Enrollment Period. A change in your plan selection will become effective the January 1 following the date you apply. Note that a new Preexisting Condition exclusion will apply to any increase in coverage (see Disabilities Excluded From Coverage).

Designated Open Enrollment Period means a period designated by the Employer during which employees may apply for insurance under the Group Policy.

B. Takeover Provision

If you were eligible but not insured under the Prior Plan and you do not enroll during the month of April 2010, you may not apply for insurance until a Designated Open Enrollment Period.

ACTIVE WORK PROVISIONS

A. Active Work Requirement

You must be capable of Active Work on the day before the scheduled effective date of your insurance or your insurance will not become effective as scheduled. If you are incapable of Active Work because of Physical Disease, Injury, Pregnancy or Mental Disorder on the day before the scheduled effective date of your insurance, your insurance will not become effective until the day after you complete one full day of Active Work as an eligible Member.

Active Work and Actively At Work mean performing with reasonable continuity the Substantial And Material Acts of your Own Occupation at your Employer’s usual place of business.

B. Changes In Insurance

This Active Work requirement also applies to any increase in your insurance.
CONTINUITY OF COVERAGE

If your Disability is subject to the Preexisting Condition Exclusion, LTD Benefits will be payable if:

1. You were insured under the Prior Plan on the day before the effective date of your Employer's coverage under the Group Policy;

2. You became insured under the Group Policy when your insurance under the Prior Plan ceased;

3. You were continuously insured under the Group Policy from the effective date of your insurance under the Group Policy through the date you became Disabled from the Preexisting Condition; and

4. Benefits would have been payable under the terms of the Prior Plan if it had remained in force, taking into account the preexisting condition exclusion, if any, of the Prior Plan.

For such a Disability, the amount of your LTD Benefit will be the lesser of:

   a. The monthly benefit that would have been payable under the terms of the Prior Plan if it had remained in force; or

   b. The LTD Benefit payable under the terms of the Group Policy, but without application of the Preexisting Condition Exclusion.

Your LTD Benefits for such a Disability will end on the earlier of the following dates:

   a. The date benefits would have ended under the terms of the Prior Plan if it had remained in force; or

   b. The date LTD Benefits end under the terms of the Group Policy.

WHEN YOUR INSURANCE ENDS

Your insurance ends automatically on the earliest of:

1. The date the last period ends for which a premium contribution was made for your insurance.

2. The date the Group Policy terminates.

3. The date your employment terminates.

4. The date you cease to be a Member. However, your insurance will be continued during the following periods when you are absent from Active Work, unless it ends under any of the above.

   a. For the first 24 months during which you are Actively At Work for the Employer as a represented employee and paid by the Employer on a half-time or greater basis, subject to the following:

      i. You must make the election to continue your insurance within 60 days following the date you cease to be a Member. If during that 60-day period you do not apply to continue your insurance, your insurance will be deemed to have ended on the date you ceased to be a Member. If during that 60-day period you apply to continue your insurance, your coverage will be retroactive to the date you ceased to be a Member.

      ii. Premium is due on or before the first day of each calendar month and must be paid directly to us at our home office. If you do not pay a premium before its due date, you may pay the premium during the following 60-day grace period. If you do not pay the premium during the 60-day grace period, your insurance will terminate automatically at the end of the grace period.

   b. During the first 60 days of a temporary layoff.

   c. During a leave of absence if continuation of your insurance under the Group Policy is required by a state mandated family or medical leave act or law.
d. During any other temporary leave of absence approved by your Employer in advance and in writing and scheduled to last 6 months or less. A period of Disability is not a leave of absence.

e. During the Benefit Waiting Period.

f. During the period you are absent from Active Work due to a regularly scheduled school break or vacation.

WAIVER OF PREMIUM

We will waive payment of premium for your insurance while LTD Benefits are payable.

REINSTATEMENT OF INSURANCE

If your insurance ends, you may become insured again as a new Member. However, the following will apply:

1. If you cease to be a Member because of a covered Disability, your insurance will end; however, if you become a Member again immediately after LTD Benefits end, the Eligibility Waiting Period will be waived and, with respect to the condition(s) for which LTD Benefits were payable, the Preexisting Condition Exclusion will be applied as if your insurance had remained in effect during that period of Disability.

2. If your insurance ends because you are on a federal or state-mandated family or medical leave of absence, and you become a Member again immediately following the period allowed, your insurance will be reinstated pursuant to the federal or state-mandated family or medical leave act or law.

3. The Preexisting Conditions exclusion will be applied as if insurance had remained in effect if required by federal or state-mandated family or medical leave act or law and you become insured again immediately following the period allowed under the family or medical leave act or law.

4. In no event will insurance be retroactive.

DEFINITION OF DISABILITY

You are Disabled if you meet the following definitions during the periods they apply:

A. Own Occupation Definition Of Disability.

B. Any Occupation Definition Of Disability.

A. Own Occupation Definition Of Disability

During the Benefit Waiting Period and the Own Occupation Period you are required to be Totally Disabled from your Own Occupation or Partially Disabled from your Own Occupation.

1. Total Disability Definition: You are Totally Disabled from your Own Occupation if, as a result of Physical Disease, Injury, Pregnancy or Mental Disorder, you are unable to perform with reasonable continuity the Substantial And Material Acts necessary to pursue your Own Occupation and you are not working in your Own Occupation.

2. Partial Disability Definition: You are Partially Disabled from your Own Occupation if you are not Totally Disabled and you are actually working in your Own Occupation but, as a result of Physical Disease, Injury, Pregnancy or Mental Disorder, you are unable to earn 80% or more of your Indexed Predisability Earnings.

Note: You are not Disabled from your Own Occupation merely because your right to perform your Own Occupation is restricted, including a restriction or loss of license. The loss of a professional license, occupational license, or certification does not, in itself, constitute Disability.
During the Own Occupation Period you may work in another occupation while you meet the Own Occupation definition of Disability. However, your Work Earnings may be Deductible Income and LTD Benefits will end when your Work Earnings meet or exceed 80% of your Indexed Predisability Earnings. See Return To Work Provisions, Deductible Income, and When LTD Benefits End.

Own Occupation may be interpreted to mean the employment, business, trade or profession that involves the Substantial And Material Acts of the occupation you are regularly performing for your Employer when Disability begins. Own Occupation is not necessarily limited to the specific job you perform for your Employer.

Substantial And Material Acts means the important tasks, functions and operations generally required by employers from those engaged in your Own Occupation that cannot be reasonably omitted or modified. In determining what Substantial And Material Acts are necessary to pursue your Own Occupation, we will first look at the specific duties required by your job. If you are unable to perform one or more of these duties with reasonable continuity, we will then determine whether those duties are customarily required of other individuals engaged in your Own Occupation. If any specific, material duties required of you by your job differ from the material duties customarily required of other individuals engaged in your Own Occupation, then we will not consider those duties in determining what Substantial And Material Acts are necessary to pursue your Own Occupation.

Your Own Occupation Period is shown in the Coverage Features.

B. Any Occupation Definition Of Disability

During the Any Occupation Period you are required to be Totally Disabled from all occupations or Partially Disabled.

1. Total Disability Definition: You are Totally Disabled from all occupations if, as a result of Physical Disease, Injury, Pregnancy or Mental Disorder, you are unable to engage with reasonable continuity in Any Occupation.

2. Partial Disability Definition: You are Partially Disabled if you are not Totally Disabled and you are actually working in an occupation but, as a result of Physical Disease, Injury, Pregnancy or Mental Disorder, you are unable to engage with reasonable continuity in that occupation or Any Occupation.

Any Occupation means all occupations or employment which you could reasonably be expected to perform satisfactorily in light of your age, education, training, experience, station in life, and physical and mental capacity that exists within any of the following locations: (i) a reasonable distance or travel time from your residence in light of the commuting practices of your community; or (ii) a distance or travel time equivalent to the distance or travel time you traveled to work before becoming Disabled; or (iii) the regional labor market, if you reside or resided prior to becoming Disabled in a metropolitan area.

Your Any Occupation Period is shown in the Coverage Features.

RETURN TO WORK PROVISIONS

A. Return To Work Incentive

You may serve your Benefit Waiting Period while working if you meet the Own Occupation Definition Of Disability.

You are eligible for the Return To Work Incentive on the first day you work after the Benefit Waiting Period if LTD Benefits are payable on that date. The Return To Work Incentive changes 24 months after that date, as follows:
1. During the first 24 months, your Work Earnings will be Deductible Income as determined in a., b. and c:
   a. Determine the amount of your LTD Benefit as if there were no Deductible Income and add your Work Earnings to that amount.
   b. Determine 100% of your Indexed Predisability Earnings.
   c. If a. is greater than b., the difference will be Deductible Income.
2. After those first 24 months, Work Earnings that will be Deductible Income is the greater of a. and b. below:
   a. 50% of your Work Earnings.
   b. The amount determined according to the formula in 1. above.

B. Work Earnings Definition

Work Earnings means your gross monthly earnings from work you perform while Disabled. Work Earnings includes:

1. Earnings from your Employer.
2. Earnings from any other employer or self employment for which you become employed after the date of your Disability.
3. Any increases, except regularly scheduled increases, in earnings from employment from any other employer or self employment in which you were engaged prior to the date of your Disability.
4. Any sick pay, vacation pay, annual or personal leave pay, severance pay, or other salary continuation earned or accrued while working.

Earnings from work you perform will be included in Work Earnings when you have the right to receive them. If you are paid in a lump sum or on a basis other than monthly, we will prorate your Work Earnings over the period of time to which they apply. If no period of time is stated, we will use a reasonable one.

In determining your Work Earnings, we:
1. Will use the financial accounting method you use for income tax purposes, if you use that method on a consistent basis.
2. Will not be limited to the taxable income you report to the Internal Revenue Service.
3. May ignore expenses under section 179 of the IRC as a deduction from your gross earnings.
4. May ignore depreciation as a deduction from your gross earnings.
5. May adjust the financial information you give us in order to clearly reflect your Work Earnings.

If we determine that your earnings vary substantially from month to month, we may determine your Work Earnings by averaging your earnings over the most recent three-month period. LTD Benefits will end on the date your average Work Earnings over the last three months equal or exceed 80% of your Indexed Predisability Earnings.

C. Family Care Expenses Adjustment

If you must pay Family Care Expenses in order to work, we will reduce the amount of the Work Earnings used in determining your Deductible Income, subject to the following:
1. Your Work Earnings will be reduced by the first $250 per Family Member of the monthly Family Care Expenses you pay, but not to exceed a total of $500 for all Family Members.

2. The Work Earnings and the Family Care Expenses must be for the same period.

3. You must give us satisfactory proof of the Family Care Expenses you pay.

4. The Work Earnings reduction by Family Care Expenses will end 24 months after it begins.

Family Care Expenses means the amount you pay to a licensed care provider for the care of your Family which is necessary in order for you to work.

Family Member means:
1. Your Child; or
2. Your Spouse, parent, grandparent, sibling, or other close family member residing in your home who is:
   a. Continuously incapable of self-sustaining employment because of mental retardation or physical handicap; and
   b. Chiefly dependent upon you for support and maintenance.

Child means:
1. Your child residing in your home (including the child of your Spouse, your adopted child, and a child for whom you are the legal guardian), from live birth through age 12; or
2. Your child, age 13 or older, residing in your home (including the child of your Spouse, your adopted child, and a child for whom you are the legal guardian) who is:
   a. Continuously incapable of self-sustaining employment because of mental retardation or physical handicap; and
   b. Chiefly dependent upon you for support and maintenance.

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION EXPENSE BENEFIT

RULES FOR DEDUCTIBLE INCOME

A. Monthly Equivalents

Each month we will determine your LTD Benefit using the Deductible Income for the same monthly period, even if you actually receive the Deductible Income in another month.

If you are paid Deductible Income in a lump sum or by a method other than monthly, we will determine your LTD Benefit using a prorated amount. Except as provided below, we will use the period of time to which the Deductible Income applies. If no period of time is stated, we will use a reasonable one.

If you receive a lump sum refund, withdrawal or distribution of contributions and earnings from your Employer's retirement plan, we will determine your LTD Benefit using a lifetime monthly annuity amount, with no survivor income. The annuity will be based on the amount you receive, and on the life expectancy of a person your age on the later of:

a. The date the lump sum is paid; and

b. The date LTD Benefits become payable.

For amounts under a workers’ compensation law, the Jones Act, the Maritime Doctrine of Maintenance, Wages or Cure, the Longshoremen’s and Harbor Worker’s Act, or any similar act or law, the period of time used to prorate the amount cannot exceed the first to occur of the following:

a. The date you reach age 65, or the end of the Maximum Benefit Period, if later; and

b. The end of the stated period.

B. Your Duty To Pursue Deductible Income

You must pursue Deductible Income for which you may be entitled. We may ask for written documentation of your pursuit of Deductible Income. You must provide it within 60 days after we mail you our request.

C. Estimating and Deducting

For any item of Deductible Income that includes amounts you, your Spouse, or your child are entitled to receive, we may reduce your LTD Benefit by the amount we estimate you would be entitled to receive if:

1. You have failed to pursue the Deductible Income with reasonable diligence;

2. We have a reasonable, good faith belief that you are entitled to the Deductible Income; and

3. We are able to reasonably estimate the amount that would be payable.

We will not estimate and deduct amounts with respect to a claim for Deductible Income that is pending, so long as you continue to pursue the claim with reasonable diligence.
D. Retirement Benefits
   1. Early retirement benefits will be Deductible Income only if you elect early retirement, or if early retirement would not reduce your accrued annuity or pension benefits.
   2. Retirement benefits received will not include amounts rolled over or transferred to any eligible retirement plan as defined by the Internal Revenue Code.

E. Pending Deductible Income
   We will not deduct pending Deductible Income until it becomes payable. You must notify us of the amount of the Deductible Income when it is approved. You must repay us for the resulting overpayment of your claim.

F. Overpayment Of Claim
   We will notify you of the amount of any overpayment of your claim under any group disability insurance policy issued by us. You must immediately repay us. You will not receive any LTD Benefits until we have been repaid in full. In the meantime, any LTD Benefits paid, including the Minimum LTD Benefit, will be applied to reduce the amount of the overpayment. We may charge you interest at the legal rate for any overpayment which is not repaid within 30 days after we first mail you notice of the amount of the overpayment.

The Dependent Education Benefit ends when you no longer meet the requirements in item A. above.

2. 60% of your insured Predisability Earnings on the date your insurance ended; and
3. The LTD Benefit payable if you had become Disabled on the day before your insurance ended and you had no Deductible Income.

This health care professional will be someone other than the person who made the original medical judgement and will not be subordinate to that person. Our review will include any written comments or other items you submit to support your claim.

We will review your claim promptly after we receive your request. Within 45 days after we receive your request for review, we will send you: (a) a written decision on review; or (b) a notice that we are extending the review period for 45 days. INCONTESTABILITY PROVISIONS

A. Incontestability Of Insurance

Any statement made to obtain insurance or to increase insurance is a representation and not a warranty.

Revised 10/21/2019
No misrepresentation will be used to reduce or deny a claim or contest the validity of insurance unless:

1. The insurance would not have been approved if we had known the truth; and
2. We have given you or any other person claiming benefits a copy of the signed written instrument which contains the misrepresentation.

After insurance has been in effect for two years during the lifetime of the insured, we will not use a misrepresentation by you to reduce or deny your claim, unless it was a fraudulent misrepresentation.

B. Incontestability Of The Group Policy

Any statement made by the Policyholder or Employer to obtain the Group Policy is a representation and not a warranty.

No misrepresentation by the Policyholder or your Employer will be used to deny a claim or to deny the validity of the Group Policy unless:

1. The Group Policy would not have been issued if we had known the truth; and
2. We have given the Policyholder or Employer a copy of a written instrument signed by the Policyholder or Employer which contains the misrepresentation.

The validity of the Group Policy will not be contested after it has been in force for two years, except for fraudulent misrepresentations.

Clerical error by the Policyholder, your Employer, or their respective employees or representatives will not:

1. Cause a person to become insured.
2. Invalidate insurance under the Group Policy otherwise validly in force.
3. Continue insurance under the Group Policy otherwise validly terminated.

B. Agency

The Policyholder and your Employer act on their own behalf as your agent, and not as our agent. The Policyholder and your Employer have no authority to alter, expand or extend our liability or to waive, modify or compromise any defense or right we may have under the Group Policy.

C. Misstatement Of Age

If a person’s age has been misstated, we will make an equitable adjustment of premiums, benefits, or both. The adjustment will be based on:

1. The amount of insurance based on the correct age; and
2. The difference between the premiums paid and the premiums which would have been paid if the age had been correctly stated.

TERMINATION OR AMENDMENT OF THE GROUP POLICY

The Group Policy may be terminated by us or the Policyholder according to its terms. It will terminate automatically for nonpayment of premium. The Policyholder may terminate the Group Policy in whole and may terminate insurance for any class or group of Members, at any time by giving us written notice.
Benefits under the Group Policy are limited to its terms, including any valid amendment. No change or amendment will be valid unless it is approved in writing by one of our executive officers and given to the Policyholder for attachment to the Group Policy. If the terms of the certificate differ from the Group Policy, the terms stated in the Group Policy will govern. The Policyholder, your Employer, and their respective employees or representatives have no right or authority to change or amend the Group Policy or to waive any of its terms or provisions without our signed written approval.

We may change the Group Policy in whole or in part when any change or clarification in law or governmental regulation affects our obligations under the Group Policy, or with the Policyholder's consent.
