TO REQUEST LOANS OR DISTRIBUTIONS

Making an online request on Personal Savings Center will not only save you time but helps ensure your money gets to you more quickly.

Visit standard.com/retirement to manage your account and request loans, withdrawals and distributions.

It's easy.

Personal Savings Center is where you can easily manage your retirement plan account online. There, you can change how much you save, your investments, see your account balance and also make online requests for loans or distributions.

- Visit standard.com/retirement to log in to Personal Savings Center. You'll need to create an account if you don't already have one.
- From the My Home page, click Go to My Account, which will take you to the Overview page.
- From the navigation, select My Account, Request a Loan or Request a Distribution.
- Then, follow the steps.
- Once you make your request, you may want to keep the transaction number for your records. You'll also get a follow-up confirmation by phone or email.
