Voluntary Short Term Disability Coverage Highlights
District School Board of Collier County, FL

Voluntary Short Term Disability (STD) Insurance

Short Term Disability insurance pays a weekly benefit in the event you cannot work because of a covered illness or injury. An STD benefit replaces a portion of your weekly income, providing funds directly to you to help pay your bills and living expenses. Standard Insurance Company (The Standard) has developed this document to provide you with information about the optional coverage you may select through District School Board of Collier County, FL.

Benefit Amount and Duration

- | | |
|------------------------------------|--|
| Benefit Percentage | Your weekly STD benefit is 60 percent of the first $2,917 of your weekly insured Predisability Earnings, reduced by deductible income |
| Plan Maximum Weekly Benefit | $1,750 |
| Plan Minimum Weekly Benefit | $25 |
| Maximum Benefit Period | 24 weeks. However, if you are eligible for benefits under an insurance plan sponsored by your employer, your maximum benefit period will be reduced by the benefit waiting period. |

Note:

- All late applications (applying 31 days after becoming eligible) and reinstatements are subject to medical underwriting approval. Employees eligible but not insured under the prior STD insurance plan are also subject to medical underwriting approval. To submit a medical history statement online, visit: myeoi.standard.com/756738.

Employee Coverage Effective Date

To become insured, you must satisfy the eligibility requirements listed above, serve an eligibility waiting period, receive medical underwriting approval (if applicable), and be actively at work (able to perform all normal duties of your job) on the day before the scheduled effective date of insurance. If you are not actively at work on the day before the scheduled effective date of insurance, your insurance will not become effective until the day after you complete one full day of active work as an eligible employee.

Please contact your human resources representative for more information regarding the requirements that must be satisfied for your insurance to become effective.

Understanding Your Plan DesignBenefit Waiting Period

If your claim for STD Benefits is approved by The Standard, benefits become payable after you have been continuously disabled for the applicable days noted below for your disability and remain disabled. Benefits are not payable during the benefit waiting period.

Accidental Injury After 14 days

Physical disease, pregnancy or mental disorder After 14 days

Definition of Disability

You will be considered disabled if, as a result of physical disease, injury, pregnancy or mental disorder:

- You are unable to perform with reasonable continuity the material duties of your own occupation, or
- You are unable to earn more than 60 percent of your Predisability Earnings when you work for your employer

Deductible Income

Deductible income is income you receive or are eligible to receive while STD benefits are payable. Deductible income includes, but is not limited to:

- Amounts under an unemployment compensation law or similar act or law
- Amounts under any state disability income benefit law or similar law
- Earnings from work activity while you are disabled
- Earnings or compensation included in your Predisability Earnings which you receive or are eligible to receive while STD benefits are payable
- Any amount you receive by compromise, settlement or other method as a result of a claim for any of the above

Exclusions

You are not covered for a disability caused or contributed to by any of the following:

- An intentionally self-inflicted injury
- War or any act of war (declared or undeclared, and any substantial armed conflict between organized forces of a military nature)
- Working for wage or profit for any employer if you are receiving benefits from any workers' compensation or occupational disease law

Limitations

STD benefits are not payable for any period when you are:

- Not under the ongoing care of a physician in the appropriate specialty as determined by The Standard
- Eligible to receive benefits under a workers' compensation law or similar law
- Working for wage or profit for any employer other than the employer offering your STD coverage, including self-employment

When Benefits End

STD benefits end automatically on the earliest of:

- The date you are no longer disabled
- The date your maximum benefit period ends
- The date you die
- The date long term disability benefits become payable to you under a group long term disability policy issued by The Standard
- The date you begin working for an employer other than your employer, or become self-employed

When Insurance Ends

Insurance ends automatically on the earliest of the following:

- The date the last period ends for which a premium was made
- The last day of the calendar month following the date your employment terminates
- The date the group policy terminates
- The date you cease to meet the eligibility requirements (insurance may continue for limited periods under certain circumstances)
- If applicable, the date your employer ceases to participate under the group policy

Group Insurance Certificate

If coverage becomes effective, and you become insured, you will receive a group insurance certificate containing a detailed description of the insurance coverage including the definitions, exclusions, limitations, reductions and terminating events. The controlling provisions will be in the group policy. Neither the information presented in this summary, nor the certificate modifies the group policy or the insurance coverage in any way.

Rates

If you have questions regarding how to determine your earnings, please contact your human resources representative. Premiums for this coverage will be deducted directly from your paycheck.

Your Age (as of last January 1)	Rate per $10 of STD benefit

To calculate your 20thly payroll deduction, use the formula indicated below:

1. Enter your Predisability Earnings (weekly earnings), not to exceed $2,917, on Line 1. Line 1: _____
2. Multiply your weekly earnings (Line 1) by 0.60 and enter on Line 2. Line 2: _____
3. Select your rate from the rate table and enter on Line 3. Line 3: _____
4. Multiply Line 2 by the amount entered on Line 3. Line 4: _____
5. Divide the amount entered on Line 4 by 10 and enter on Line 5. Line 5: _____
6. Multiply Line 5 by 12 and divide by 20. Line 6: _____

The amount shown on Line 6 is your estimated 20thly payroll deduction.

Predisability Earnings means your weekly rate of earnings from your Employer. See your plan Certificate for complete details.
