

Frequently Asked Questions About Filing A Short Term Disability Claim

The following questions and answers will help you file a claim by telephone with Standard Insurance Company should you become disabled. The steps outlined below will enable you to access our efficient claims services quickly and easily.

When Should I Report A Claim?

Report a claim as soon as you believe you will be absent from work beyond 5 calendar days. If you are uncertain about how long you will be absent or whether you should file a claim or not, we suggest that you proceed with filing a claim right away. This offers you some peace of mind and allows for The Standard to begin its review and issue a timely payment if appropriate. You may report a claim up to four weeks in advance of a planned disability absence, such as childbirth or scheduled surgery.

How Do I File A Claim?

To file a claim by telephone, contact The Standard's Claim Intake Service Center at 844.433.7973.

To file a claim online, go to www.standard.com and click on "File a Claim" to begin the claim process. Instructions will be provided through the entire claim submission process.

Note: If you submit your claim online, the claim submission system will indicate a requirement for a Disability Insurance Employer's Statement to be received before a decision may be made on your claim. Although this is a requirement, you do not need to take this to your employer. Upon receipt of your Employee Statement, The Standard will reach out to your employer to obtain the necessary information needed for your claim.

To file a paper claim, contact your benefits administrator or go to www.standard.com and click on "Find a Form". To download, complete and print a Short Term Disability claim packet.

A typical application for disability benefits contains the following documents:

- Employee's Statement<sup>1</sup>
- Employer's Statement<sup>2</sup>
- Attending Physician's Statement (APS)<sup>3</sup>
- Authorization to Obtain and Release Information

When I Report My Claim, What Information Will I Need To Provide?

You will be asked to provide the following information — in addition to other questions about your absence:

- Employer name: Rectors and Visitors of University of Virginia
- Group Plan number: 647264
- Name and Social Security number
- Last day you were at work
- Nature of claim/medical information
- Physician's contact information (name, address, phone and fax number)<sup>3</sup>

How Long Does It Normally Take To Make A Claim Decision?

Once The Standard receives the required paperwork, which includes the Employee's Statement, Employer's Statement, Attending Physician's Statement and Authorization to Obtain and Release Information, it will take approximately one week to make a claim decision. If we have not made a decision within one week, you will be notified with additional details.

If My Claim For Benefits Is Approved, How Long Will It Take To Receive My First Check?

STD benefits will be paid by your employer through your normal payroll cycle. Your benefits administrator can explain the type of plan you have and specifically how your benefits will be paid.

Who Should I Call With Questions About My Claim?

If you have already filed a claim, please call The Standard's Disability Benefits toll-free number, 844.433.7973. If you are looking for general information, please contact your benefits administrator.

Who Is Responsible For Notifying The University of Virginia Of My Absence?

It is your responsibility to follow the normal University absence reporting procedures by notifying your manager or supervisor of your absence.

- <sup>1</sup> If you file online or by telephone, your submission serves as the Employee's Statement and we will instruct you on which other documents need to be completed.
- <sup>2</sup> The Standard will contact your Employer to obtain the information necessary on the Employer's Statement.
- <sup>3</sup> The Standard will fax an Attending Physician's Statement (APS) to your doctor for completion and will make up to three follow up attempts to obtain a completed APS from your doctor. We encourage you to contact your doctor and ask their assistance in completing the APS on your behalf.
