

Health Advocacy Enhanced

When you're sick or injured, the last thing you want to do is line up doctors, figure out bills and try to find answers to your health care questions. Health Advocacy Enhanced can help you deal with these health care hassles, saving you time and worry.

What is a Personal Health Advocate?

Health Advocacy Enhanced provides Personal Health Advocates to help with your benefit needs. Personal Health Advocates are here to answer your questions and help you navigate the health care system. They're available at no extra cost through your group insurance coverage from The Standard. When you're sick or injured, they can help you get answers about your health care.

Personal Health Advocates are also available to your spouse or domestic partner, dependents, parents and parents-in-law.

There's no need to take on the health care system by yourself. Personal Health Advocates are available Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. – 10 p.m. Eastern. A Personal Health Advocate will assist with your case until it's resolved.
