

A helping hand when you need it.

Rely on the support, guidance and resources
of your Employee Assistance Program.

Standard Insurance Company

There are times in life when you might need a little help coping or figuring out what to do. Take advantage of the Employee Assistance Program¹ (EAP) which includes WorkLife Services and is available to you and your family in connection with your group insurance from Standard Insurance Company (The Standard). It's confidential — information will be released only with your permission or as required by law.

With EAP, assistance is immediate, personal and available when you need it.

Connection to Resources, Support and Guidance

You, your dependents (including children to age 26)² and all household members can contact master's-degree clinicians 24/7 by phone, online, live chat, email and text. There's even a mobile EAP app. Receive referrals to support groups, a network counselor, community resources or your health plan. If necessary, you'll be connected to emergency services.

Your program includes up to three face-to-face assessment and counseling sessions per issue. EAP services can help with:

Depression, grief, loss and emotional well-being

Family, marital and other relationship issues

Life improvement and goal-setting

Addictions such as alcohol and drug abuse

Stress or anxiety with work or family

Financial and legal concerns

Identity theft and fraud resolution

Online will preparation

WorkLife Services

WorkLife Services are included with the Employee Assistance Program. Get help with referrals for important needs like education, adoption, travel, daily living and care for your pet, child or elderly loved one.

Online Resources

¹ The EAP service is provided through an arrangement with Bensinger, DuPont & Associates (BDA), which is not affiliated with The Standard. BDA is solely responsible for providing and administering the included service. EAP is not an insurance product and is provided to groups of 10–2,499 lives. This service is only available while insured under The Standard's group policy.

² Children under the age of 12 will not receive individual face-to-face counseling sessions.

The Standard is a marketing name for StanCorp Financial Group, Inc. and subsidiaries. Insurance products are offered by Standard Insurance Company of Portland, Oregon in all states except New York. Product features and availability vary by state and are solely the responsibility of Standard Insurance Company.
