

Protect Your Income

With Platinum Advantage From The Standard

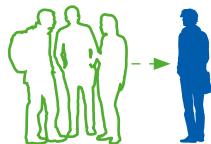

As a medical professional, you see firsthand how often an injury or sickness can occur. Have you considered who would help you, if you were unable to work for a prolonged period of time?

You know how important it is to prepare for the unexpected and protect your income in case you are unable to work for an extended period of time. Just like insurance for your home or your car, you can get insurance that goes to work when you can't by replacing a portion of your income if a disabling injury or sickness prevents you from working.

With Platinum Advantage from The Standard, you can have peace of mind knowing that your finances are secure and your lifestyle is protected.

Disability Happens

You may think your odds of becoming disabled and unable to work are low, but consider these facts.

One of four 20-year-olds will become disabled before age 67.¹

Approximately 90% of disabilities are caused by illnesses, not accidents.²

Every seven seconds, someone in the United States suffers an illness, injury or accident that will keep them out of work for more than one month.³

There is an insurance product that can alleviate worry by protecting your paycheck. It's called individual disability insurance.

Other optional riders include Indexed Cost of Living Benefit Rider, Catastrophic Disability Benefit Rider,⁹ Residual Disability Rider and Noncancelable Policy Rider.¹⁰

A Choice of Residual Disability Rider¹¹

If you were to experience a disabling medical condition and an income loss of at least 20%, yet be able to work in some capacity, a Residual Disability Rider would provide you a portion of your monthly benefit. The Enhanced, Basic and Short-Term residual disability riders all pay a minimum of 50% of the monthly benefit for a certain period of time, depending on the rider.
