

Increase Illustrations User Guide

General Information

Please review the base policy before creating an increase illustration in The Standard's Illustration Software. The increase policy must match the benefits, riders and discounts on the base policy.

Since Platinum Advantage is the increase policy for a variety of base products, we have created a Mapping Rules section outlining how different benefits will be mapped to the increase policy. Once you have a clear understanding of what will be included on the increase policy, please use the Step-by-Step Guide for detailed instructions on how to create an illustration for your client.

Please remember:

- Make sure all information entered about the base product is accurate. If all information is entered correctly, there should be no errors in the final illustration.

Policyowners with FPOs who are on claim are eligible to exercise their increase, but they must meet all requirements. BIRs may not be exercised by policyowners on claim. When a policy is on claim, Policy Inquiry will display Yes in the Premium Waiver Status section and Claim in the Reason section.

Premium Waiver Status
Premium Waiver	Yes	Reason
		Claim

Information Needed Prior to Illustrating for Maximum Eligible Increase

- Is the insured individual a business owner?
- Is the insured individual a government employee?
- Occupation/duties
- Income
- Bonus income
- Existing DI coverage
- Existing group long term disability coverage & whether employee- or employer-paid

Information Needed Prior to Illustrating for Specific Amount or Maximum Available

This guide is written to illustrate the maximum increase the insured individual is eligible for. To quote the maximum available or a specific amount, less information is needed. After entering the policyowner's information on the Prospect and Base Policy tabs, please ensure:

- Occupation/duties field on the Income and In Force Coverage tab is completed
- Existing DI coverage equals at least $1,000
- Please note: default income amount may need to be increased to quote desired amount.

Mapping Rules

For Platinum Advantage to be issued as an increase policy, there are certain rules that must be followed depending on the riders and discounts on the base policy. Below are further details on the benefits, riders and discounts.

Riders and Benefits

The following benefits will not be included in the Platinum Advantage increase, even if they are on the base policy:

- Future Purchase Option or Increase Option Rider
- Catastrophic Disability Rider
- Supplemental Social Insurance Benefit Rider
- Any other benefit that is not available with Platinum Advantage
- Student Loan Rider (available with Platinum Advantage base policy only)

The policyowner may remove or reduce benefits from the increase. However, no riders or benefits may be added that are not on the base policy. Similarly, the policyowner may not reduce the waiting period or increase the benefit period, unless such a change is a feature of the base policy at the time of the increase.

Rider or Benefit	Details
MDSA	Add this benefit to the increase policy to match the base policy coverage. If the base policy had an MDSA limitation endorsement, or the base coverage contained the limitation, the increase will also have that limitation. Policyowners with unlimited coverage in their base policy may apply for the limitation on the increase. To determine whether the base policy has an MDSA limitation, see the policy plan codes in Policy Inquiry. For Protector+, you'll see an M within the plan code. Platinum Advantage's plan code will include M2.
Own Occupation	This rider will be included in the increase policy for all occupation classes if it is a benefit on the base policy.
Cost of Living Adjustment	This rider will be included in the increase policy for all occupation classes if it is a benefit on the base policy. The percentage cannot be increased, but may be decreased.
Residual	For increase policies on Protector Platinum or Protector Platinum GME base policies: • Will default to Enhanced Residual for all occupation classes. • All occupation classes may choose to lower their coverage to Basic Residual.* • Occupation classes B, A, 2A and 2P may also choose to lower coverage to Short-Term Residual.* For increase policies on all other products: • Will default to Basic Residual for all occupation classes. • Occupation classes B, A, 2A and 2P can choose to lower their coverage to Short-Term Residual.* • Enhanced Residual is not available to any occupation class because it would be an increase in benefits and features beyond the coverage in the base policy. For increase policies in California: • If the base policy does not have a residual rider, will need to add Short-Term Residual to the increase policy issued in CA for all occupation classes. We must add a residual rider to all new policies issued in CA. *As with any reduction in benefits or features, language will be added to the policy acceptance documents so that the insured acknowledges that benefits paid out on the increase may be different than their other coverage already in force.

Gender Risk Classes

The increase will be issued at the same gender risk class as the base policy.

Occupation Classification (occupation class)

Base policies that specify the increase will be issued at the “better of” occupation class — that is, occupation class at original issue vs. occupation class at time of increase — will be honored.

Please be aware that when selecting the “better of” occupation class, the benefits may change in some cases. Refer to the Occupation Class guide in The Standard's IDI Online Reference Product Guide for more details.

Please note: If the base policy is Platinum Advantage, the BIR increase must match the base occupation class. “Better of” is not available with Platinum Advantage base policies.

Benefit Period

We will issue the increase to match the benefit period on the base policy as closely as possible.

Policy Modifications

Modifications — such as premium ratings, exclusions and limitations — issued on the base policy will apply to the increase, even if the increase is issued as a new policy.

Discounts

Discounts applied to the base policy will also be applied to the increase, if applicable and available. Not all discounts previously available on prior products are available on Platinum Advantage. Use the chart below to match the base product's discount percentage with the filed and approved Platinum Advantage discount.

Step-by-Step Guide: How to Illustrate Increases

- 1 Open Policy Inquiry and search for the policy for which you will be creating the increase illustration.

Tip: Open two separate browsers. You'll need to access — and view information in — The Standard's Illustration Software and Policy Inquiry at the same time.

- 2 On the Illustration Software's Welcome page, click on the Producer tab and enter the producer information.

The screenshot shows the 'Producer Information' form in the Illustration Software. The form is titled 'Producer Information' and includes the following fields and buttons:

- First Name: John
- Last Name: Doe
- Producer License: (empty)
- Agency Name: (empty)
- Address: (empty)
- City: (empty)
- State: None (dropdown menu)
- Zip: (empty)
- Phone Number: (empty)
- Email: (empty)
- Buttons: SELECT PRODUCER, ADD PRODUCER

¹ Also applies to Platinum Advantage base policies.

² Business Owner Discount can be applied to A and B occupation classes on increase policies if discount is on the base policy, even though it is not available for Platinum Advantage new business.

³ 10% discount in SC.

⁴ Only available if the increase is a Benefit Increase Rider on a Platinum Advantage base policy that has the eApply Discount.

3 Click Start Illustration tab.

- Always select Illustrate by Product in the Illustration Method section for FPO and BIR.
- Select the appropriate state from the Prospect State drop-down menu.
- Select Illustrate Increase from the Presentation Type drop-down menu.
- Click the Platinum Advantage link for fully underwritten policies. Click the Platinum Advantage for GME link for GME policies.

The screenshot shows the 'Start Illustration' tab with the following sections:

- Illustration Method: A dropdown menu set to 'Illustrate by Product'.
- Create New Illustration: Fields for 'Prospect State' (Oregon) and 'Presentation Type' (Illustrate Increase).
- Product Name / Description Table:

Important Notes

Total all previously exercised coverage. Base + any additional policies + any layered coverage.

Layer Increases: Check the Benefit and Rider Detail section in Policy Inquiry for layer increases. If there are layer increases that will be added to the existing policy, that amount needs to be added to the amount listed for the Base Coverage (this will always be listed on the first line under Benefit and Rider Detail section). To identify a layer increase in the Benefit and Rider Detail section, the layer will have a similar Plan Code and Type of Coverage description. See below for example.

Coverage
Base Plan Code	PTIN C3 10	Occ Class	SA
Plan Type	Platinum Noncancelable with ICOL 3%	Base Waiting Period	90 Days

T AIB 10	AUTOMATIC INCREASE BENEFIT		38	Active
T CAT NC 10	CATASTROPHIC BENEFIT	1,058.00	38	Active
T FPO 10	FUTURE PURCHASE OPTION (CALL HOME OFFICE FOR QUOTE)	3,568.00	38	Active
T FPO BAL 10	FUTURE PURCHASE OPTION POOL BALANCE	1,784.00	38	Active
PTIN C3 F0	Platinum Noncancelable with ICOL 3%	1,784.00	42	Active

AIB: If the base policy is either Protector Platinum or Platinum Advantage and has an AIB rider, there may be an upcoming 4% AIB increase that will take effect on the policy anniversary. Policy Inquiry will not display this until the anniversary date, so a manual calculation may be needed. If quoting the maximum eligible increase, add this additional 4%.

Supplemental Social Insurance Rider: For Protector+, this rider may be listed in the Benefit and Rider Detail section. Similar to the Layer Increases mentioned above, this coverage amount will need to be added to the amount listed for the Base Coverage.
