

Group Long Term Disability Insurance

Protect your income while coping with a long-lasting disability.

Long Term Disability insurance can help protect your income if you can't work due to a qualifying disability. It can also help you get back to work when you're ready. Whether you're out for a few months or years, this benefit can help you protect your income — and those who depend on it.

Long Term Disability insurance may help protect your income if you can't work and don't get your regular paycheck.

Long Term Disability insurance can help pay the bills if you become disabled and can't work for an extended period. That could be a few months or several years. This coverage may help replace part of your paycheck, which can help protect your lifestyle and savings.

You can get help returning to work when you're ready. This Long Term Disability coverage includes incentives and assistance to help you get back to work. The Standard may also help pay the costs of modifying your workplace to accommodate your needs.

Long-term disabilities can be caused by accidents but also by illnesses such as cancer and heart disease. How many paychecks could you miss? Long Term Disability insurance can help you maintain your lifestyle and pay for things, such as:

Long Term Disability Insurance

What Your Benefit Provides

This is the amount per month you would receive if you experience a qualifying disability. Eligible earnings are your monthly insured predisability earnings, as defined by the group policy. Your monthly benefit will be reduced by deductible income. Please see the Important Details section for a list of deductible income sources.

60% of the first $16,667 of your insured predisability earnings

Plan maximum per month: $10,000

Plan minimum per month: $100 or 10% of the Long Term Disability benefit, whichever is greater

Benefit Waiting Period

If you experience a qualifying disability, your benefit waiting period is the length of time you must be continuously disabled before you become eligible to receive your monthly benefit.

180 days

How Long Your Benefits Last

This is the maximum length of time you could be eligible to receive disability benefits for a continuous disability.

Until your Social Security Normal Retirement Age

Depending on your age at the time of disability, your benefits may be subject to a different schedule. Refer to the Maximum Benefit Period table in the Important Details section for specifics.

See the Important Details section for more information, including requirements, limitations, exclusions and definitions.

Additional Features

Help With Returning To Work

This plan provides incentives to help you get back to work. For instance, you'll get help paying for some of the expenses associated with participating in an approved rehabilitation plan.

If a worksite modification would enable you to return to work, the coverage can help your employer make approved modifications.

You may also be eligible to receive an additional benefit of 10% of your predisability earnings for participating in an approved rehabilitation plan, subject to the plan maximum.

Survivors Benefit

If you die while receiving benefits, your survivors may be eligible to receive a one-time additional payment.

Support When You Need It

You'll have access to an Employee Assistance Program. This is a valuable confidential counseling resource if you're experiencing personal or work-related issues. This service is provided through an arrangement with a service provider who is not affiliated with The Standard.

Additional Features Continued

Family Care Expense Benefit

Applies if you are disabled, have returned to work and continue to receive Long Term Disability benefits. For 12 months, your calculated work earnings will be reduced by a portion of qualified expenses (up to $250 per dependent or $500 per family, per month).

How Much Your Coverage Costs

Because this insurance is offered through Transport Workers Union of America Local 567, you'll have access to competitive group rates that may be more affordable than those available through individual insurance. You'll also have the convenience of having your premium deducted directly from your paycheck.

How much your premium costs depends on your age and benefit amount.

Use this formula to estimate your biweekly premium payment:

$$\begin{array}{ccccccc}
 & & \times & & \div 100 = & & \text{--->} \\
 \hline
 \text{Enter your monthly eligible earnings} & & & \text{Enter your rate from the rate table.} & & \text{This amount is an estimate} & \text{To get a sense of your biweekly} \\
 \text{(cannot be more than $16,667).} & & & & & \text{of how much you'd pay} & \text{premium, take your monthly premium,} \\

Your Age (As of Jan. 1)	Rate (% of Monthly Eligible Earnings)
<30	0.113
30-34	0.169
35-39	0.323
40-44	0.526
45-49	0.613
50-54	0.860
55-59	0.966
60+	1.142

As you consider Long Term Disability insurance, evaluate what makes sense for you.

Getting by without a paycheck isn't easy, especially for an extended period of time. Make sure you have enough financial protection to help you with housing costs, utilities and other bills.

To estimate your insurance needs, you'll need to consider your unique circumstances. Use our online calculator at standard.com/disability/needs.

Important Details

Here's where you'll find the details about the plan.

Eligibility Requirements

A minimum number of eligible members must apply and qualify for the proposed plan before coverage can become effective. If this requirement is not met, this plan will not become effective.

To be eligible for coverage, you must be:

- An active member in good standing with Transport Workers Union of America Local 567, actively working at least 20 hours per week and actively at work for an employer who has entered into a collective bargaining agreement and has met the employer's criteria for coverage for full-time members
- A citizen or resident of the United States or Canada

Temporary and seasonal members, full-time members of the armed forces, leased members and independent contractors are not eligible.

Coverage Effective Date

To become insured you must:

- Meet the eligibility requirements listed above
- Serve an eligibility waiting period*
- Apply for coverage and agree to pay premiums
- Receive medical underwriting approval (if applicable)
- Be actively at work (able to perform all normal duties of your job) on the day before the scheduled effective date of insurance

*If you are already a member on the date the group policy is effective, you are eligible on that date. If you become a member after the group policy effective date, you are eligible on that date.

If you are not actively at work on the day before the scheduled effective date of insurance, your insurance will not become effective until the day after you complete one full day of active work as an eligible member.

All late applications (applying more than 31 days after becoming eligible), requests for coverage increases (including requests to insure predisability earnings that are greater than the last amount for which medical underwriting approval was required), amounts over the guarantee issue amount and reinstatements are subject to medical underwriting approval. Members eligible but not insured under the prior long term disability insurance plan are also subject to medical underwriting approval.

If you elect coverage that requires medical underwriting approval, you will be prompted to submit a Medical History Statement online at the time of enrollment.

You may enroll in Voluntary Long Term Disability insurance without answering medical underwriting questions if you apply during your employer's one-time open enrollment period from Nov. 3, 2025 through Dec. 5, 2025. After this special enrollment period, medical underwriting approval may be required.

Please contact your human resources representative or plan administrator for more information regarding the requirements that must be satisfied for your insurance to become effective.

Definition of Disability

For the benefit waiting period and the first 24 months that Long Term Disability benefits are payable, you will be considered disabled if, as a result of physical disease, injury, pregnancy or mental disorder:

- You are unable to perform with reasonable continuity the material duties of your own occupation, and
- You suffer a loss of at least 20% of your predisability earnings when working in your own occupation.

You are not considered disabled merely because your right to perform your own occupation is restricted, including a restriction or loss of license.

After the own occupation period of disability, you will be considered disabled if, as a result of a physical disease, injury, pregnancy or mental disorder, you are unable to perform with reasonable continuity the material duties of any occupation.

Maximum Benefit Period

If you become disabled before age 62, Long Term Disability benefits may continue during disability until age 65 or to the Social Security Normal Retirement Age or 3 years, 6 months, whichever is longest. If you become disabled at age 62 or older, the benefit duration is determined by the age when disability begins:

Age	Maximum Benefit Period
62	To SSNRA or 3 years, 6 months, whichever is longer
63	To SSNRA or 3 years, whichever is longer
64	To SSNRA or 2 years, 6 months, whichever is longer
65	2 years
66	1 year, 9 months
67	1 year, 6 months
68	1 year, 3 months
69+	1 year

Exclusions

Subject to state variations, you are not covered for a disability caused or contributed to by any of the following:

- Your committing or attempting to commit an assault or felony or your active participation in a violent disorder or riot
- An intentionally self-inflicted injury, while sane or insane
- War or any act of war (declared or undeclared and any substantial armed conflict between organized forces of a military nature)
- The loss of your professional or occupational license or certification
- A preexisting condition or the medical or surgical treatment of a preexisting condition, unless on the date you become disabled, you have been continuously insured under the group policy for the exclusion period and you have been actively at work for at least one full day after the end of the exclusion period

Preexisting Condition Provision

A preexisting condition is a mental or physical condition whether or not diagnosed or misdiagnosed during the 90-day period just before your insurance becomes effective:

- For which you or a reasonably prudent person would have consulted a physician or other licensed medical professional; received medical treatment, services or advice; undergone diagnostic procedures, including self-administered procedures; or taken prescribed drugs or medications
- Which, as a result of any medical examination, including routine examination, was discovered or suspected

Exclusion Period: 12 months

Limitations

Long Term Disability benefits are not payable for any period when you are:

- Not under the ongoing care of a physician in the appropriate specialty, as determined by The Standard
- Not participating in good faith in a plan, program or course of medical treatment or vocational training or education approved by The Standard, unless your disability prevents you from participating
- Confined for any reason in a penal or correctional institution
- Able to work during the 24-month own occupation period and earn at least 20% of your indexed predisability earnings, but you elect not to work. During the 24-month own occupation period, the responsibility to work is limited to work in your own occupation; thereafter, the responsibility to work includes work in any occupation.

In addition, the length of time you can receive Long Term Disability payments will be limited if:

- You reside outside of the United States or Canada
- Your disability is caused or contributed to by mental disorders or substance abuse

When Your Benefits End

Your Long Term Disability benefits end automatically on the date any of the following occur:

- You are no longer disabled
- Your maximum benefit period ends
- Benefits become payable under any other disability insurance plan under which you become insured through employment during a period of temporary recovery
- You fail to provide proof of continued disability and entitlement to benefits
- You pass away

Deductible Income

Your benefits will be reduced if you have deductible income, which is income you receive or are eligible to receive while receiving Long Term Disability benefits. Deductible income includes:

- Sick pay, annual or personal leave pay, severance pay or other forms of salary continuation (including donated amounts) paid to you by your employer that exceeds 100% of your indexed predisability earnings when added to your Long Term Disability benefit
- Benefits under any workers' compensation law or similar law
- Amounts under unemployment compensation law
- Social Security disability or retirement benefits, including benefits for your spouse and children
- Amounts because of your disability from any other group insurance
- Any disability or retirement benefits you received or are eligible to receive from your employer's retirement plan
- Benefits under any state disability income benefit law or similar law
- Earnings from work activity while you are disabled, plus the earnings you could receive if you work as much as your disability allows
- Earnings or compensation included in your predisability earnings which you receive or are eligible to receive while Long Term Disability benefits are payable
- Amounts due from or on behalf of a third party because of your disability, whether by judgment, settlement or other method
- Any amount you receive by compromise, settlement or other method as a result of a claim for any of the above

Group Insurance Certificate

If coverage becomes effective and you become insured, contact your human resources representative for a group insurance certificate containing a detailed description of the insurance coverage including the definitions, exclusions, limitations, reductions and terminating events. The controlling provisions will be in the group policy. The information presented in this summary does not modify the group policy, certificate or the insurance coverage in any way.

When Your Insurance Ends

Your insurance ends automatically when any of the following occur:

- The date the last period ends for which a premium was paid
- The date your employment terminates
- The date the group policy terminates
- The date you cease to meet the eligibility requirements (insurance may continue for limited periods under certain circumstances)
- The date Transport Workers Union Local 567 ends participation in the group policy
