Your health insurance may help pay medical bills. Short Term Disability insurance pays you. It can replace part of your paycheck if you can't work due to a qualifying disability.

Disability insurance may help protect your income if you're unable to work.

Short Term Disability insurance can help pay benefits if you become disabled and can't work for a short amount of time.

This coverage replaces a portion of your income when you can't work because of a qualifying disability, including injury, physical disease, pregnancy or mental disorder.

You may receive weekly benefits that replace a specified percentage of your eligible earnings. Benefits begin after the benefit waiting period.

What Your Benefit Provides

This is the benefit you'd receive if you suffer a qualifying disability. Eligible earnings are your weekly insured predisability earnings, as defined by the group policy. Your benefit amount will be reduced by deductible income; see the Important Details section for a list of deductible income sources.

60% of the first $4,167 of your insured predisability earnings

Plan maximum per week: $2,500

Plan minimum per week: $15

Benefit Waiting Period

If you suffer a qualifying disability, your benefit waiting period is the length of time you must be continuously disabled before you can begin receiving your weekly benefit.

- 14 days for accidental injury
- 14 days for physical disease, pregnancy or mental disorder

Extended Benefit Waiting Period

This applies if you do not apply for this coverage within 31 days of becoming eligible, were eligible for coverage under a prior plan for more than 31 days but were not insured, or if your insurance ends because you failed to pay your premium and is later reinstated.

Your benefit waiting period is 60 days for any qualifying disability caused by physical disease, pregnancy or mental disorder occurring during the first 12 months of coverage.

How Long Your Benefits Last

This is the maximum length of time you could be eligible to receive a weekly disability benefit.

180 days

See the Important Details section for more information, including requirements, exclusions, limitations and definitions.

Additional Features

Return to Work Incentive

Your disability benefit will not be reduced by any work earnings you receive until the combined amount of the benefit and your earnings and other sources of income exceeds 100% of your predisability earnings.

Help With Returning To Work

If a worksite modification would enable you to return to work, we can help your employer make approved modifications by covering some or all of the cost.

How Much Your Coverage Costs

Because this insurance is offered through Transport Workers Union of America Local 567, you'll have access to competitive group rates that may be more affordable than those available through individual insurance. You'll also have the convenience of having your premium deducted directly from your paycheck.

How much your premium costs depends on your age and your benefit amount.

Use this formula to estimate your biweekly premium payment:

$$\frac{\text{Enter your weekly earnings (cannot be more than $4,167)}}{\text{Enter your rate from the rate table}} \times 0.60 \times \text{--->} \div 10 = \frac{\text{This amount is an estimate of how much you'd pay each month.}}{\text{To get a sense of your biweekly premium, take your monthly premium, multiply by 12 months and divide by 26 pay periods. This is your biweekly premium.}}$$

Your Age (As of Jan. 1)	Rate (Per $10 of Weekly Benefit)
<30	$0.186
30-34	$0.192
35-39	$0.234
40-44	$0.243
45-49	$0.356
50+	$0.384

Not being able to work also means not being able to earn a paycheck.

As you consider Short Term Disability insurance, think about the expenses you would need to cover if you became disabled:

- Housing costs
- Utilities
- Groceries
- Medical bills
- Car insurance
- Child care costs

To estimate your insurance needs, you'll need to consider your unique circumstances. Use our online calculator at standard.com/disability/needs.
