 Definition of Total Disability	An insured is totally disabled if unable to perform the substantial and material duties of his or her regular occupation and is not engaged in any other occupation for wage or profit. If insured's regular occupation is limited to a single medical specialty recognized by the American Board of Medical Specialties (ABMS) or American Osteopathic Association Bureau of Osteopathic Specialists (AOABOS) or American Dental Association (ADA), that specialty is deemed insured's regular occupation. In Florida, the policy provides one year of own occupation coverage before the regular occupation definition of total disability stated above takes effect.	All occupation classes have option of a two- or five-year period during which insured is totally disabled if unable to perform the substantial and material duties of his or her occupation and is not working. This period is called the "your occupation period," and is followed by an any occupation definition of total disability. Occupation classes 6A, 5A, 5A-M, 4A, 4A-M, 3A, 3A-M have option for a to age 65, to age 67 or to age 70 period during which insured is unable to perform the substantial and material duties of their occupation and is not working. In Florida, during the first 12 months of the "your occupation period" insured is totally disabled if unable to perform the substantial and material duties of his or her occupation. During the remainder of the "your occupation period" insured is totally disabled if unable to perform the substantial and material duties of his or her occupation and is not working.	Platinum Advantage includes medical and dental specialty language in the regular occupation definition of total disability. Platinum Advantage's regular occupation definition of total disability is in effect through the end of the maximum benefit period, while Principal's HH750 limits the regular occupation definition of total disability period to two or five years for lower occupation classes. Principal's HH750 version of Platinum Advantage's regular occupation definition may only apply for a two- or five- year period before changing to an any occupation definition.

 Own Occupation Rider	For occupation classes 5A, 5P, 4A, 4P, 4S, 3A, 3D and 3P, option to elect Own Occupation Rider, under which an insured is totally disabled if unable to perform the substantial and material duties of regular occupation, even if engaged in any other occupation for wage or profit. If insured's regular occupation is limited to a single medical specialty recognized by the American Board of Medical Specialties (ABMS) or American Osteopathic Association Bureau of Osteopathic Specialists (AOABOS) or American Dental Association (ADA), that specialty is deemed insured's regular occupation. If insured is an attorney and has limited regular occupation to the performance of the usual and customary activities of a trial attorney, then trial attorney will be deemed insured's regular occupation.	Occupation classes 6A, 5A, 5A-M, 4A, 4A-M and 3A-M have the option to include the own occupation (what Principal calls regular occupation) rider, under which total disability means insured is unable to perform the substantial and material duties of their occupation and are not working in their occupation and are working in another occupation. This rider is not available with the transitional occupation rider. Occupation classes 6A, 5A, 5A-M, 4A, 4A-M, 3A, 3A-M may include the transitional occupation rider, under which total disability means, during the transitional occupation period, insured is unable to perform the substantial and material duties of their occupation but is working in another occupation. The benefit allows the insured to make up for loss in income due to not working in regular (own) occupation. The transitional occupation period must be less than or equal to the base benefit period and the your occupation period. This rider is not available with the own occupation (Principal's regular occupation) rider and will not pay benefits for both this rider and any residual/recovery benefit rider at the same time.	Platinum Advantage includes medical, dental and trial attorney specialty language in the own occupation definition of total disability. Platinum Advantage's own occupation definition of disability allows the insured to be working in another occupation and still receive full monthly benefits through the end of the maximum benefit period. Principal's HH750 transitional occupation definition of disability requires the insured to work in another occupation, if able, but will allow insured to make up for a loss in earnings due to not working in own occupation.
 Presumptive Disability	Presumptive disability must be a total and permanent loss of speech, hearing in both ears, sight in both eyes, use of both hands, use of both feet, or use of one hand and one foot. Will waive benefit waiting period and benefits are payable through the end of the benefit period. Will pay the full monthly benefit regardless of earnings.	Presumptive disability must be a total loss — without any possibility of recovery — of power of speech, hearing in both ears, sight of both eyes, use of both hands, use of both feet, or use of one hand and one foot. Benefits will start when presumptive disability occurs, even if elimination period has not been satisfied and will be paid through the end of the maximum benefit period. If maximum benefit period is to age 65, to age 67 or to age 70, the maximum benefit period will be extended to lifetime. Will pay benefits for total disability regardless of ability to work. In Florida, the benefits are paid through the end of the maximum benefit period and are not extended to lifetime.
