Base Contract
 Definition of Total Disability	During the first 24 months of disability, an insured is totally disabled if unable to perform the substantial and material duties of his or her regular occupation and is not engaged in any other occupation for wage or profit. After 24 months of disability, an insured is totally disabled if unable to perform the substantial and material duties of any occupation and is not engaged in any other occupation for wage or profit. If the insured's regular occupation is limited to a single medical specialty recognized by the American Board of Medical Specialties (ABMS) or American Osteopathic Association Bureau of Osteopathic Specialists (AOABOS) or American Dental Association (ADA), that specialty is deemed the insured's regular occupation. Have option to extend the regular occupation definition through the full benefit period by adding the Regular Occupation Extension Rider. In Florida, the base policy provides one year of own occupation coverage followed by one year of regular occupation coverage before changing to the any occupation definition of disability.	For occupation classes 6S-3A, an insured is totally disabled if prevented from performing the material and substantial duties of his or her regular occupation and is not gainfully employed. For occupation class 2A, during the regular occupation period, an insured is totally disabled if prevented from performing the material and substantial duties of his or her regular occupation and is not gainfully employed. After the regular occupation period, an insured is totally disabled if prevented from performing any occupation he or she is or becomes reasonably fitted for by education, training or experience and is not gainfully employed. The regular occupation period is the lesser of the benefit period or five years. In Florida, the base policy provides one year of own occupation coverage before changing to the regular occupation or any occupation definition of disability.	Platinum Advantage includes dental and medical specialty language in the regular occupation definition of total disability. Platinum Advantage provides a lower-cost option with the 24-month regular occupation definition followed by the any occupation definition, and still offers the Regular Occupation Extension Rider to all occupation classes for those who want the regular occupation definition for the full benefit period.

 Own Occupation Rider	For occupation classes 5A, 5P, 4A, 4P, 4S, 3A, 3D and 3P, option to elect Own Occupation Rider, under which an insured is totally disabled if unable to perform the substantial and material duties of his or her regular occupation, even if engaged in any other occupation for wage or profit. If the insured's regular occupation is limited to a single medical specialty recognized by the American Board of Medical Specialties (ABMS) or American Osteopathic Association Bureau of Osteopathic Specialists (AOABOS) or American Dental Association (ADA), that specialty is deemed the insured's regular occupation. If insured is an attorney and has limited regular occupation to the performance of the usual and customary activities of a trial attorney, then trial attorney will be deemed insured's regular occupation.	Monthly Benefit for Total Disability in Your Occupation Rider For occupation classes 6S, 6A and 5A, Omni Select provides option to elect Monthly Benefit for Total Disability in Your Occupation Rider, under which an insured is totally disabled if prevented from performing the material and substantial duties of his or her regular occupation. Transitional Your Occupation Benefit Rider For occupation classes 6S, 6M, 6A, 5A, 5M, 5I, 4A and 4M, Omni Select provides option to elect Transitional Your Occupation Benefit Rider, under which an insured is transitionally disabled if prevented from performing the material and substantial duties of his or her regular occupation but insured is gainfully employed in another occupation. The benefit paid is the lesser of the maximum monthly transitional your occupation benefit, and the insured's loss of earnings minus benefits received from other disability coverage, but not less than 25 percent of the maximum monthly transitional your occupation benefit. The benefit will be paid in place of all other benefits for total or residual disability. If the benefit that would be paid under the monthly benefit for residual disability exceeds the monthly transitional your occupation benefit, the monthly benefit for residual disability will be paid in place of this benefit. Any month that the monthly benefit for residual disability is paid will not count toward the maximum benefit period for the transitional your occupation benefit. Monthly transitional your occupation benefits will be paid to the earliest of the date a period of transitional disability ends, the date the maximum benefit period for the policy ends or the end of the maximum benefit period for the transitional your occupation benefit. In some cases, may refund a portion of the premium paid for the rider if the monthly transitional your occupation benefit is reduced. Another version of this rider is available in states where the Transitional Your Occupation Benefit Rider is not available.	Platinum Advantage includes dental, medical and trial attorney specialty language in the own occupation definition of total disability. Platinum Advantage's Own Occupation Rider is available to most medical occupations, while only Omni Select's Transitional Your Occupation Benefit Rider is available to most medical occupations.

Contract Riders

Enhanced Residual Disability Rider

During the benefit waiting period the insured will be considered residually disabled if working in his or her regular occupation or any other occupation, and has at least a 20 percent loss of duties, time or income. After the benefit waiting period, a benefit will be paid as long as insured is working in his or her regular occupation or any other occupation, and has at least a 20 percent loss of income. Benefit varies based on income loss; however, during the first 12 months the benefit will be no less than 50 percent of the monthly benefit. Includes a cost of living adjustment based on the CPI-U.

Recovery benefit paid if, after a period of disability, the insured is working in regular or any occupation at least as many hours as prior to disability and continues to have a loss of earnings of at least 20 percent, and loss of earnings is solely the result of the previous sickness or injury. The amount of the recovery benefit will be proportionate to loss of earnings. Premium waiver applies while recovery benefits are paid.

Available to all issue ages and to occupation classes 5A, 5P, 4A, 4P, 4S, 3A, 3D and 3P.
