Base Contract
 Definition of Total Disability	An insured is totally disabled if unable to perform the substantial and material duties of his or her regular occupation and is not engaged in any other occupation for wage or profit. If insured's regular occupation is limited to a single medical specialty recognized by the American Board of Medical Specialties (ABMS) or American Osteopathic Association Bureau of Osteopathic Specialists (AOABOS) or American Dental Association (ADA), that specialty is deemed insured's regular occupation.	During the first 24 months of a benefit period, insured is totally disabled if unable to perform all of the material and substantial duties of his or her regular occupation and is not engaged in any occupation for wage or profit. After the first 24 months of the benefit period, insured is totally disabled if unable to perform all of the material and substantial duties of any occupation for which he or she is reasonably suited because of education, training or experience. Occupation classes 6A, 5A, 5M, 4A, 4M, 3A, 3M, 2A and 2M have the option to add the Extended Regular Occupation Rider. With this rider, the insured is totally disabled if unable to perform all of the material and substantial duties of his or her regular occupation and is not engaged in any occupation for wage or profit.	Platinum Advantage includes medical and dental specialty language in the regular occupation definition of total disability. Platinum Advantage's regular occupation definition of total disability is in effect through the end of the maximum benefit period, while Mutual of Omaha's Mutual Income Solutions limits the regular occupation definition of total disability period to two years for lower occupation classes. Mutual of Omaha's regular occupation definition may apply for only a two-year period before changing to an any occupation definition.
